GANES is a nonprofit organization, based in southern New Jersey, serving individuals and families in the northeastern region of the United States. Every dollar raised adds up to help those affected by galactosemia, a rare genetic, metabolic disorder. GANES is run by parents, families, and volunteers, so 100% of the money raised goes directly to support our mission:

To create and strengthen networking of individuals and families affected by galactosemia along with health care providers, and to support education and research.
